"Joy to the World"

Joy to the World! Christ is coming soon.

No more let sin and sorrow grow, nor thorns infest the ground.

He comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 7:10-17, 9:2-4,6-7

Lily Baker & Katelyn Baker

A Reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah said: "Hear then, O house of David! the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel."

Isaiah also said, “The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom.”

ANTHEM

“Will You Be Ready”

LUTHER CHOIR

Mark Patterson

People who walk in darkness have seen a great light.
The light will shine upon them; may it shine brightly tonight.

Will you be ready for the light to shine upon you?
Will you be ready for the light to shine?

Will you be watching? Will you be listening? Will you hear the angels sing?
Will you be waiting? Will you be searching for a Savior and a King?

People keep watching, true light is coming, look for a bright star in the East.
Look for the Christ Child, born in a manger, there you will find the Prince of Peace.

Will you be ready?

SECOND READING

Luke 1:26-58

Bram Comer

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, The virgin’s name was Mary. And he came to her and said, “Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you.” “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.” Mary said to the angel, “How can this be, since I am a virgin?” The angel said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God.

THIRD READING

Luke 2:1-7

Elena Hoffman

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. Joseph went to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

ANTHEM*CHANCEL CHOIR“The Hands That First Held Mary’s Child”*

Dan Forrest

The hands that first held Mary’s child were hard from working wood.
 From boards they sawed and planed and filed and splinters they withstood.
 This day they gripped no tool of steel, they drove no iron nail,
 But cradled from the head to heel our Lord, newborn and frail.

When Joseph marveled at the size of that small breathing frame,
 And gazed upon those bright new eyes and spoke the infant’s name,
 The angel’s words he once had dreamed poured down from heaven’s height,
 And like the host of stars that beamed blessed earth with welcome light.

“This child shall be Emmanuel, not God upon the throne,
 But God with us, Emmanuel, as close as blood and bone.”
 The tiny form in Joseph’s palms confirmed what he had heard,
 And from his heart rose hymns and psalms for heaven’s human word.

The tools that Joseph laid aside a mob would later lift
 And use with anger, fear, and pride to crucify God’s gift.
 Let us, O Lord, not only hold the child who’s born today,
 But charged with faith may we be bold to follow in His way.

FOURTH READING

Luke 2:8-16

Luke Hoffman

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!” When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

ANTHEM*CHANCEL CHOIR“All The Sky is Bright”*

Robert Buckley Farlee

All the sky is bright, filled with joy, a new joy.
 Waiting for the night, we will talk of wonders.
 Never was a feast like this! Born is Jesus Christ,
 Born the Child-God given to us!

Now the Light appears, Word of God eternal.
All the universe knows the Father's goodness.
God the Lord of heaven and earth comes to show the way,
Guides our feet to endless day.

Not alone they come, simple shepherds, wise men:
All the human race wants to make him welcome,
Wants to look upon the face of the Lord of bliss,
Who becomes a child for us.

Glory sing to Christ, Son of God the Father;
Glory sing again to the loving spirit.
Brilliant is the mystery all the bright skies tell:
God dwells with us. Sing Noel!

SIXTH READING

John 1:1-18

Pastor Michael Comer

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father’s only son, full of grace and truth.
